

Exploring Accounting Software for First Nations on February 14 in Saskatoon

Will you be attending February's AFOA Conference?

Your Valentine's Day Treat

Let Adagio Accounting treat you to Valentine's Day lunch at the Radisson Hotel Saskatoon.

Get a head start on Exploring Accounting Software as a guest of Adagio Accounting. Learn why Adagio Accounting and its associated compatible Third Party software is the premier choice of First Nation Accounting, Payroll, and Social Assistance departments.

Adagio is the First Choice for First Nations

Over 200 First Nations currently use Adagio by Softrak. If you're not using Adagio Accounting, you probably fit in one of these categories.

- Still using the discontinued ACCPAC Plus
- Moved to Sage Accpac ERP but spending too much of your organization's time or money to keep it running
- Outgrowing Simply or QuickBooks
- Having difficulty getting with your current software meeting the ever increasing financial reporting requirements of funding agencies.

Your organization probably runs many different programs in health, education, heritage, social services, housing and more. With Adagio Ledger's superb Financial Reporter, the financial officer can produce exactly the reports needed to manage these programs effectively. In addition, Adagio GridView can put a read-only reporting tool on any desk where someone needs access to the accounting data in real time.

Of course, Adagio Accounting can be an excellent solution for many of the businesses managed by First Nations. Adagio can work effectively for everything from sawmills to day-care centres. Many First Nation organizations run specialized programs developed for their exact needs. Often, these programs will export data to the accounting system. Adagio's importing features are flexible and easily set up to handle many file formats.
